

BAD BOSSES BASH DEC. 7 TO HAVE FUN WITH BAD BOSSES AND INTRODUCE THE NEW SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR WORKING WITH BAD BOSSES

Kick-Off for National Tour by Oakland Author

Just about everyone has their own bad boss story or knows someone who does – as Oakland book author, business consultant, screenplay writer and game designer – Gini Graham Scott, Ph.D. found in writing her latest book. It's A Survival Guide for Working with Bad Bosses from AMACOM, a division of the American Management Association. And to celebrate its publication, she and several associates are organizing a BAD BOSSES BASH. It's a gala party to have fun with, talk about, and learn what to do about bad bosses, to be held on Wednesday, Dec. 7 – 5:30-7:30 p.m. at the Linen Life Park Avenue Gallery, 1375 Park Avenue, Emeryville. The public is invited and there is no charge. The celebration will feature a program with Bay Area business, work, film, and media community members with these events:

- A Famous and Bad Bosses Game – network to find out who you are!
- Share bad boss stories – with tips on what to do
- The Bad Bosses Advice Game – get in groups, share advice, and vote on who gives the best advice – and the worst!
- Door prizes and awards for the best bad boss stories and game scores.
- Video clips from workshops and talks based on the book.

The book itself is a follow-up to the very successful A SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR WORKING WITH HUMANS, also from AMACOM. It features a series of short stories from people with different types of bad bosses, followed by a list of possible alternatives, a discussion of the best approach, and take-away tips for dealing with your own boss – or being a better boss.

For more information, you can visit the Bad Bosses Web site at www.badbosses.net. Please e-mail newsmediaconnection@yahoo.com or call (510) 339-1625 to make your reservation and indicate the number of people in your party.